

Gastroenterologist, Dr. Alok D. Gupta, Joins BMG

WILLIAMSVILLE, NY – Alok D. Gupta, M.D., joined Buffalo Medical Group, PC, July 1, after completing fellowship training in gastroenterology, hepatology and nutrition at the University at Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences (UB) and affiliated hospitals.

He is proficient in all diagnostic and therapeutic endoscopic gastrointestinal procedures.

Board certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine. He was an attending physician in the Department of General Internal Medicine at Buffalo General Hospital from 1998 until 2007, and also served as a clinical assistant professor of medicine at UB.

He earned his medical degree at JL Nehru Medical College in India, and while completing his Internal Medicine residency at UB, was elected to serve as Chief Resident at Erie County Medical Center.

Dr. Gupta also received training in Internal Medicine and Gastroenterology in England and was awarded membership in the Royal College of Physicians.

He is a member of the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy, and an associate member of the American Society of Internal Medicine.

Dr. Gupta has authored and co-authored articles for various medical journals and publications, and served as a co-investigator for several clinical studies.

His office is located at 9 Limestone Drive, Williamsville.

Founded in 1946, Buffalo Medical Group, PC, is among the oldest and largest multi-specialty physician practices in New York State. With 90 specialists and sub-specialists as well as a team of 660 nurses, technologists, and other health care professionals, BMG records more than 400,000 outpatient visits annually at its main locations in Buffalo, Williamsville, and Orchard Park and 24 satellite sites.

#####

July 16, 2010

Contact: Scott Campione (716) 630-1193

e-mail: scampione@buffalomedicalgroup.com