

Two Physicians Join Buffalo Medical Group

WILLIAMSVILLE, NY – Buffalo Medical Group has announced that Gurpreet Dhaliwal, MD, whose specialty is obstetrics and gynecology, and Cynthia Xinyue Liu-Chen, MD, PhD, a family practice specialist, joined its staff in January.

Dr. Dhaliwal is a native of India where she earned her medical degree at Punjab University's Government Medical College. She completed a family practice residency at the University at Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences and Millard Fillmore Suburban Hospital, and her OB/GYN residency at UB and Sisters of Charity of Hospital.

Dr. Dhaliwal is a member of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology, the Buffalo Obstetrics and Gynecology Society, and Sisters of Charity Hospital Medical Staff. She has BMG offices at 6245 Sheridan Drive, Williamsville, and 3345 Southwestern Boulevard in Orchard Park.

A native of China, Dr. Liu-Chen earned her medical degree at Beijing Medical University, and was awarded a PhD in molecular pharmacology at Cornell University Medical College and Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York City.

She completed a family practice residency at Guthrie Clinic/Robert Packer Hospital, Sayre, PA, and is board certified in Family Medicine and Geriatric Medicine.

Most recently an attending physician and practice administrator at Generations Family Health Center in Danielson, CT, Dr. Liu-Chen has authored or co-authored several journal articles. She will see patients at BMG's 85 High Street office in Buffalo.

Founded in 1946, Buffalo Medical Group is among the oldest and largest multi-specialty physician practice groups in New York State with approximately 110 specialists and sub-specialists. Annually, BMG records more than 400,000 outpatient visits at its main locations in Buffalo, Williamsville and Orchard Park, and 24 satellite sites throughout Western New York.

February 5, 2007

Contact: Michael H. Shaw (716) 630-2500