

Oncology/Hematology Specialist Joins BMG

WILLIAMSVILLE, NY – Victor Ernesto D. Yosucio, MD, MSc, who specializes in medical oncology and hematology has joined Buffalo Medical Group, PC, and began seeing patients in February at BMG's 85 High Street location in Buffalo.

A native of the Philippines, he earned his medical degree at the College of Medicine, University of the Philippines, and trained in internal medicine at the University of the Philippines – Philippine General Hospital. Dr. Yosucio also completed clinical fellowship training in medical oncology and hematology at Roswell Park Cancer Institute. Prior to joining BMG, Dr. Yosucio completed a residency in internal medicine at the University at Buffalo School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences and Buffalo General Hospital.

He is a member of the American Society of Clinical Oncology, the Philippine College of Physicians, Philippine Society of Medical Oncologists, and the Philippine Society of Oncology. Dr. Yosucio has authored or co-authored numerous book chapters, abstracts and articles for medical journals and publications.

Founded in 1946, Buffalo Medical Group, PC, is the largest multi-specialty private physician practice in Western New York with approximately 110 specialists and sub-specialists. Annually, BMG records more than 400,000 outpatient visits at its main locations in Buffalo, Williamsville and Orchard Park, and 23 satellite sites throughout Western New York.

March 19, 2007

Contact: Michael H. Shaw (716) 630-2500